Description

Stocker 700g cutting axe, ideal for gardening and DIY work. Its 500g head is made of high-quality carbon steel and has an anti-friction coating that guarantees precise and efficient cutting. The ergonomic handle, with non-slip inserts, offers a comfortable and secure grip, while its hollow structure reduces vibrations when hitting the wood. Additionally, the back of the head can be used as a hammer, adding versatility to the product. Equipped with a loop for safe and comfortable transport, this ax is an essential tool for any cutting task.
