Description

Simon 100 Front Kit with 3 elements 2 bases+2 keys black SIMON 10020310-138
Simon 100 was born with the purpose of simplifying people's lives. Its main characteristic is usability, as it is designed to facilitate user interaction. It is a revolutionary line in terms of usability, aesthetic and technical innovation, as it is the first interface with push-button actuation to be used with the hand.

Its horizontal keys with push-button actuation allow a maximum interaction surface, always of the same size and with the same actuation. Furthermore, the matrix arrangement of the keys is more intuitive and easier to remember. Likewise, the Simon 100 kits group minimal functions for each room with the purpose of allowing users to cover all their needs under a clean aesthetic and without lines.
