Complete desktop kit with 4 black Schuko socket bases Simon 400. As a response to current needs, Simon offers this complete desktop kit with 4 black Schuko socket bases from the Simon 400 series. A perfect solution for spaces that require more elements, ideal for both offices and homes. A 205x120x80 millimeter kit suitable for embedding in furniture, featuring a manual lifting system. Manufactured for 16 Ampere intensities and a 250 volt voltage, it includes 4 bases for a standard current circuit. It features a painted steel decorative cover and covers and fasteners resistant to accidents, as they are made of halogen-free self-extinguishing thermoplastic, which prevents fire spread and the creation of toxic fumes. The anodized aluminum profile provides great resistance and durability against impacts.
