Description

IRIS PLUS | Frame 4 horizontal white elements BJC 18014
BJC Iris Plus, the new aesthetic of BJC Iris

This new series of frames brings new features:

- Attractive to architects, due to its square style aesthetic.
- Ideal for renovations, simply change the frames.
- Interesting for decorators and interior designers for its original and different aesthetic.
- BJC's ideal complement for the MEC18 and the Iris series.

How are the BJC Iris Plus frames

The new Plus frames are in four finishes:

- white
- aluminum
- chocolate
- cosso anthracite

They are built with Urea, a material that offers heat resistance, surface hardness, chemical resistance and electrical insulation properties.

Why is it easy to switch to BJC Iris Plus

If you already have BJC Iris or BJC Mega, the only thing you have to change is the frame. As simple as that. Take advantage of all the functions that this series has and simply change the aesthetics.
