Description

IRIS PLUS | Frame 2 vertical chocolate elements BJC 18112-CH
BJC Iris Plus, the new aesthetic of BJC Iris

This new series of frames brings new features:

- Attractive to architects, due to its square style aesthetic.
- Ideal for renovations, sought after by interior designers due to its original and distinct aesthetics.
- BJC's ideal complement for the MEC18 and the Iris series.

How are the BJC frames Iris Plus

The new Plus frames are in four finishes:

- white
- aluminum
- chocolate
- cosso anthracite

They are built with Urea, a material that offers heat resistance, surface hardness, chemical resistance and electrical insulation properties. .

Why is it easy to switch to BJC Iris Plus

If you already have BJC Iris or BJC Mega, the only thing you have to change is the frame. As simple as that. Take advantage of all the functions that this series has and simply change the aesthetics.
