Description

Serrucho Maestral 250 is the ideal tool for any type of cutting and pruning in the garden. With its 25cm straight blade made of steel treated with thermal impulses, it guarantees resistance and long life. The rubber handle provides a firm grip, while the slight curve creates the perfect angle to apply the appropriate force during sawing, avoiding unnecessary efforts and uncomfortable positions. The ergonomic non-slip polypropylene handle, with soft synthetic rubber, offers a comfortable and secure grip. Includes a practical case for storage and transport. Weighing 156g, this saw is the perfect choice for garden hobbyists.
