Adjustable Wrench Large Opening 6 Short

Brand: COFAN

Reference: COF 09514950

Short large opening adjustable wrench. It is 30% lighter than a Standard key. It has an extra fine head that allows it to be used in very limited spaces when working. Made of high quality chrome-vanadium steel that provides greater resistance and durability. Their chrome-coated surface protects them from rust and makes them resistant to corrosion. It has different length and opening measurements. Very precise central wheel opening system. Millimetered on both sides for quick adjustments. It is used for automotive maintenance and repair tasks, plumbing and general repair.
