Antares Model Reflective Suspenders

Brand: COFAN

Reference: COF 11002078

Reflective straps designed to increase the user's visibility and safety in order to be seen day or night or even under any adverse weather conditions. Ideal for runners, hikers, cyclists or anyone who needs to increase their visibility. These highly elastic straps have an adjustable design to ensure they fit any body shape. They can be worn over a t-shirt, jacket or any other garment. These elastic bands are made of 95% polyester and 5% elastane. In addition, they have a front closure with a buckle and 4 additional adjustable buckles located at the waist and shoulders indicated to maintain a comfortable fit and prevent the straps from moving. Available in one size. Conforms to the EN 13356:2001 standard on visibility accessories for non-professional use.
