Description

The Onix Surface LED Downlight is an advanced lighting solution that combines efficiency, versatility and comfort in a single product. Designed as part of the ONIX series, this square downlight in WHITE color is an elegant addition to any space. With dimensions of 3x22x22 centimeters, this downlight offers a power of 18 watts, providing exceptional lighting with 1620 lumens of light. What makes it unique is its ability to SELECT BETWEEN THREE LIGHT TEMPERATURES: 3000K (warm light), 4000K (natural light) and 6500K (cool white), allowing you to customize the atmosphere of your space to your preferences. The Onix Surface LED Downlight is also equipped with a TWILIGHT MOTION SENSOR, which has a detection angle of 120 degrees and a range of 3 to 5 meters away. This sensor ensures that the light turns on only when necessary, automatically activating at night when it detects movement in its range. Additionally, it turns off after 38 seconds of inactivity, further improving energy efficiency. This downlight is an ideal option for areas where adjustable, sensor-controlled lighting is required. Its sleek, square design fits perfectly into a variety of environments, and its ability to customize light temperature makes it a versatile solution for your lighting needs.
