Description

This BVM Mota brand magnetic hexagonal socket set is ideal for any DIY or professional job that requires a precise fit. With a 1/4" socket and measurements of 8, 10 and 11mm, these sockets are versatile and adapt to a wide range of nuts and screws. Their hexagonal design facilitates grip and prevents slipping, while their magnetic function helps keep parts in place during work. At 65mm (2 1/2") long, these sockets are long enough to access deep, narrow spaces. Manufactured with high quality materials, they guarantee durability and resistance to corrosion. Whether for home or professional use, this magnetic hex socket set is an excellent addition to any toolbox.
