Description

WORGRIP 20V Brushless SDS Drill 4.0Ah

The WORGRIP 20V drill is the perfect tool for those looking for power and efficiency in their construction and DIY projects. Equipped with a brushless motor, this drill prevents overheating, which prolongs its life and improves its performance. The quick-change SDS chuck makes it easy to exchange bits, allowing you to work more agilely and without complications.

With a power of 20V, the WORGRIP 20V offers an adjustable speed of 0 to 1050 RPM, adapting to different materials and drilling needs. Its incidence rate of 0 to 4500 BPM and an impact energy of 1.5 joules make it an ideal tool for demanding jobs, whether in drill or hammer mode. The 10-18mm drilling capacity ensures you can tackle a wide variety of tasks with ease.

The 4000mAh lithium battery is one of the strong points of this drill, guaranteeing a long life so you can work without interruptions. In addition, its quick charge system in just 2 hours allows you to get back into action quickly, optimizing your working time. The 230V-50Hz connection ensures constant and reliable performance.

The design of the WORGRIP 20V includes an integrated LED light, which improves visibility in poorly lit work areas, ensuring precision in every hole. This drill is not only powerful, but also ergonomic, offering a comfortable and secure grip thanks to its well-balanced design.

In short, the WORGRIP 20V brushless SDS drill is a versatile and robust tool, designed to meet the demands of professionals and DIY enthusiasts. Its combination of power, efficiency and advanced features make it a standout choice for any drilling project.
