Description

Eco Cutter With 18mm Blade - Wolfpack Cutter

Discover the versatility and efficiency of the Eco Cutter With 18mm Blade from the renowned Wolfpack brand. This cutter is the ideal tool for those looking for precision and comfort in their cutting projects. With a length of 18 mm, its 0.4 mm carbon steel blade guarantees clean and long-lasting cuts, adapting to a wide variety of materials.

The polypropylene body of the cutter not only provides lightness, but also offers an ergonomic grip that facilitates its handling, allowing prolonged use without causing fatigue. Its design in yellow and black colors is not only attractive, but also ensures that the cutter is easily visible in any work environment.

Safety is a priority with the built-in safety button, which prevents accidents by securing the blade when not in use. This utility knife is perfect for a variety of applications, from cutting paper and cardstock to opening packages and cardboard boxes. It is also ideal for more specialized jobs such as cutting carpet, upholstery and vinyl.

Also known as a utility knife or cutter, this utility knife is an essential tool for any home or workshop. Its practical and functional design makes it a reliable choice for craft tasks and unpacking products. Trust the quality and durability of the Eco Utility Knife With 18mm Blade from Wolfpack to carry out your projects with precision and safety.
