

Product sheet

Black sliding window blocker mod.40 21686 amig

Brand: AMIG

Reference: ALM 3006.0101

Sliding window blocker model 40 from the AMIG brand, black. Made from resistant materials, it measures 30x152 mm, ideal for ensuring security and preventing unwanted openings. Its discreet design adapts to different window styles, offering functionality and durability. Easy to install, it is a practical solution to protect spaces and maintain peace of mind at home or in the office.

View product online

Description

The AMIG model 40 sliding window blocker is the perfect solution to ensure security in your home or office. With an elegant black color and made of resistant materials, this device measures 30x152 mm and adapts to different window styles, offering functionality and durability.

Its discreet design does not affect the aesthetics of your spaces, but it does provide the peace of mind of knowing that your windows are protected against unwanted openings. Easy to install, this blocker is a practical option to maintain security at all times.

With the AMIG model 40 sliding window blocker, you can be sure that your spaces will be protected and safeguarded. Do not worry anymore about possible intruders or accidents, this device gives you the peace of mind you need to enjoy your home or office without worries.

Specifications

Colour	Black
EAN	8413023616868
Manufacturer	AMIG

If you have any questions, contact our support team

Item downloaded on 17 September 2026