

Product sheet

B2P 105mm lock button/key round 70mm painted cays

Brand: CAYS

Reference: ALM 3388.0050

B2P deadbolt with 105 mm painted case, designed for maximum security. Includes 70 mm long round exterior cylinder and 15 mm steel latch. Ideal for doors that require additional protection. Its robust design and high quality materials guarantee durability and resistance. Perfect for residential or commercial use, combining functionality and aesthetics.

View product online

Description

The B2P 105mm push button/key lock with 70mm painted round cylinder is the perfect solution for those looking for maximum security for their doors. Its high-quality painted case and 15mm steel latch guarantee strength and durability, offering additional protection for your home or business.

This lock is designed with robust materials that ensure its optimal operation over time, making it a safe and reliable investment. Its 70mm long external round cylinder provides an additional level of security, ensuring that only authorized persons can access the interior.

With an elegant and aesthetic design, this lock combines functionality and style, adapting perfectly to any type of door. Whether for residential or commercial use, the B2P 105mm push button/key lock with 70mm painted round cylinder is the ideal choice for those looking to protect what they value most.

Specifications

Colour	Black, Niquelado
EAN	8428410000601
Material	Steel, Níquel

If you have any questions, contact our support team

Item downloaded on 15 September 2026