Description

Optimize your space with our handy 12-liter collapsible bucket! This versatile accessory is ideal for household chores, camping, gardening, and more. Its clever design allows it to be easily folded for compact storage, saving valuable space in your home or vehicle.

Made from high-quality materials, this bucket combines durability and flexibility. The primary material is TPE (thermoplastic elastomer), known for its strength and flexibility, while the secondary material is polypropylene (PP), which provides rigidity and stability to the structure. Its gray and white color combination gives it a modern and discreet look.

With a 12-liter capacity, it's perfect for washing small items, mopping floors, carrying water, or any other task that requires a sturdy, easy-to-handle container. It features built-in handles for comfortable and secure carrying. Plus, its stackable design makes it even easier to store when not in use.

It comes in a handy bag to protect it during transport and storage. Don't miss out on this essential accessory for your home!
