Description

The stove reducer support is an essential tool for those who use gas stoves and need to adapt the size of the burners to smaller utensils, such as coffee makers and saucepans. Made with high-quality materials, this accessory guarantees durability and efficiency in your daily use.

- Material: Reinforced steel with a blackened finish, providing strength and an elegant appearance.
- Compatibility: Specifically designed for use on gas stoves, ensuring a secure and stable fit.
- Dimensions: Diameter of 135 mm, suitable for supporting smaller utensils without the risk of falling.
- Durability: It does not deform with heat, which prolongs its useful life. It is recommended to let it cool naturally, avoiding contact with cold water to maintain its properties.
