Description

The Witte-28430-21 Impact Bit Set in BIT-BOX is a professional solution designed to maximize the efficiency of cordless impact drivers. These impact bits are specifically crafted to work in conjunction with high-performance tools, guaranteeing greater strength and durability compared to standard bits. Their exceptional longevity is due to a combination of advanced technical features.

The bits feature a unique torsional shape that allows for better absorption of torsional forces, a highly flexible material that minimizes the risk of breakage, and a special hardened steel that ensures superior wear resistance.

With a compact design of 38 mm in length, these bits allow for direct application in cordless impact drivers without the need for a bit holder, facilitating more controlled and efficient handling.

They are especially recommended for screwdrivers that operate with tightening torques greater than 25 Nm.
