Description

The Erizo-LTB10 coarse triangular mechanic's file is an essential tool for precision work on metal and wood. Designed specifically for filing corners and sharp angles, this file is ideal for finishing threads, milling cutters, and flat surfaces. Its triangular cross-section, with equal sides that taper towards the tip, allows easy and effective access to hard-to-reach areas. The double chisel on all three sides ensures greater efficiency in roughing, facilitating a more uniform and precise finish.
