Description

The Erizo-LLLF4 4" Thin Flat Mechanic's File for Fine Keys is ideal for precision mechanical work, especially in the locksmithing and gunsmithing industries. Its design resembles that of a conventional flat file, but it stands out for its thinness and sharp point, allowing easier access to tight spaces and a more detailed finish on the workpieces. With double cuts on both faces and single cuts on the edges, this file offers exceptional versatility for various applications, guaranteeing precise, high-quality results.
