Description

The Armour Bermuda shorts in black, size M (40 cm/51 cm), are the ideal choice for those seeking comfort and functionality in their wardrobe. These shorts are designed with an adjustable elastic waistband at the sides, allowing for a customized fit and greater freedom of movement. Their 200 g/m² twill construction, composed of 80% polyester and 20% cotton, guarantees durability and resistance, as well as a soft and pleasant feel against the skin.

The Bermuda shorts feature multiple pockets that offer ample storage space. They include two front pockets, two side pockets with flaps and Velcro closures, as well as two back welt pockets with buttons, providing functionality without sacrificing style.

Its practical and modern design makes it a versatile garment, suitable for various activities, from casual walks to work that requires more robust attire.
