Description

The R-shaped blister pin 10 units is a mechanical component designed for secure fastening applications in industrial and electronic systems. Its 'R' shaped structure provides firm and durable locking, ideal for connections that require stability and longevity. Made from resistant materials, it ensures reliable performance in demanding technical environments.

Technical Specifications

- Height: 5.00 cm
- Width: 16.00 cm
- Depth: 30.00 cm
- Total weight: 0.760 kg

Its main use is in assemblies where a quick and effective mechanical fastening solution is needed. They are ideal for applications in electrical or electronic panels, as well as in industrial systems that require secure connections without the need for additional tools.

Installation is straightforward and simple thanks to its specific design, allowing precise fitting without complications. It is recommended to verify dimensions before assembly to ensure compatibility with corresponding components.
