Description

The Supreme Crystal Embolus Coffee Maker is an infusion preparation device that uses manual pressure technology to extract intense flavors and pure aromas from coffee or tea. Its compact design allows a simple operation without the need for electricity, guaranteeing total control over the extraction process.

Technical characteristics

- borosilicate glass jar resistant to high temperatures.
- Total capacity of 600ml (approximately 4 cups).
- Stainless steel filter suitable for dishwasher.
- Ergonomic handle with cold touch for a safe grip.

This equipment stands out for its versatility, allowing to prepare all kinds of infusions and coffees with a superior quality. Its robust construction ensures durability in demanding domestic or commercial environments, maintaining the purity of the taste thanks to the non-porous glass material.

The installation is immediate; simply place the pitcher on a stable surface, pour the hot water and add the grains or infusion leaves. By gently pressing the plunger, the filtered liquid is automatically transferred to the lower pitcher, ready to serve in seconds.
