Description

The brown silicone bakel skillet handle replacement is a replacement accessory designed to restore the functional integrity of damaged kitchen utensils. Made with an advanced combination of materials, it guarantees durability and thermal safety in demanding domestic environments.

Technical characteristics

- Materials: High strength bakelite and silicone.
- Compatible diameter range: 22 to 32 cm.
- Specific diameter for Wok Suprême: 28 cm.
- Aesthetic design: Natural wood effect.
- Properties: High quality and heat resistance.

Its versatility allows adapting pans and woks from various brands, ensuring a comfortable and safe grip during food preparation. Material resistance prevents deformations even under frequent washing cycles and high temperatures in daily use.

The installation is immediate; simply remove the original broken or worn handle and fit this spare part, ensuring its mechanical fixation. It does not require additional tools or complex adjustments, allowing the utensil to be recovered in minutes for subsequent use in the kitchen.
