Description

The Supreme Adjustable Foldable Mandoline is a professional kitchen tool designed to laminate and cut vegetables, vegetables and cheeses with absolute precision. Made of ABS and polypropylene food quality materials, it guarantees safety and durability in each use.

Technical characteristics

- Body in ABS resistant and lightweight.
- Adjustable film from 1 to 7 mm.
- Extra reinforced pressure system.
- Ergonomic design for greater comfort.
- Free of BPA suitable for food contact.
- Compatible with dishwasher.

This equipment allows to obtain uniform cuts in julian, thin or thick sheets according to the need of the dish. Its high stability prevents sudden movements during cutting, improving operator safety and the final presentation of ingredients.

The installation is immediate: only the rolling system is adjusted to the desired size before starting. The operation is easy thanks to its ergonomic pressure cap that facilitates continuous operation without fatigue in daily intensive cooking tasks.
