Description

The 90 mm NIRON PREMIUM cuff is a plumbing accessory made of PPR, specifically designed to make watertight connections by welding socket in polypropylene pipe systems.

Technical characteristics

- Diameter: 90 mm
- Material: PPR (Polipropylene)
- Connection type: Type A matrix
- Method of binding: Welding socket
- Colour: Grey
- Reference: RA7050

This component guarantees the dimensional compatibility and mechanical strength necessary to maintain the structural integrity of the installation. Its design facilitates accurate assembly, ensuring safe and efficient connections within fluid distribution systems under pressure.
