Description

The 91.5 cm oak tilting burlet is designed to improve door sealing in residential environments, offices and commercial premises. Made of wood from sustainably managed forests, its tilting mechanism allows the cloth to be lifted when opening the door, avoiding wear by friction with the ground. It is attached to the blade by means of bolted hinges, ensuring a safe and stable installation.

Technical characteristics

- Material: Oak wood
- Length: 91,5 cm
- Height: 10,0 cm
- Width: 6,0 cm
- Depth: 100.0 cm

This burlet helps block air currents, reduce heat loss in winter and keep cool in summer. It also acts as a barrier against dust, insects, and noise, minimizing light entry through the bottom of the door. Its design allows you to trim it to suit different door sizes.
