connector ORTRONICS® white Simon 27 Play

View product onlineDescription

The success of the products included in the range Simon 27 Play should be the perfect union between the highest quality of materials and the competitive price of the items that make up this series. An example of this duality of what we have in Plate for voice and data with a flat overall for a RJ45 connector in white from the range. For easy installation, which can be comfortable in a few minutes, it is necessary the use of a universal enclosure of recessed or, failing that, a base surface, taking into account that its dimensions are 45x45 mm
