Single key with viewer and engraving bell white Simon
28View product onlineDescription

Single key with built-in viewer and a small engraving of hood with white finish. This article belongs to the series Simon 88 and is available only in the above-mentioned finish. It is an appropriate key to install on the surface and also to embed in all kinds of environments, because of their extraordinary thermal resistance, while the most convenient is that it is located in environments of between 5 and 40 ° c for optimal conservation.
